Who Is A Vulnerable Adult?

Vulnerable Adult means a person age 18 or older whose ability to perform the normal activities of daily living, and/or to provide for his or her own care or protection, is impaired due to a mental, emotional, sensory, long-term physical, or developmental disability or dysfunction, or brain damage, or due to the infirmities of aging.

*Per 415.102(28), Florida Statutes

What is a Caregiver?

“Caregiver” means a person who has been entrusted with or has assumed the responsibility for frequent and regular care of or services to a vulnerable adult on a temporary or permanent basis and who has a commitment, agreement, or understanding with that person or that person’s guardian that a caregiver role exists.

*Per 415.102(5), Florida Statutes

Overview of Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation

- Abuse, neglect and exploitation are complex and often hidden problems.
- The Department of Children & Families (DCF) investigates and corrects abuse, neglect and exploitation through the reports taken by the Florida Abuse Hotline (1-800-96-ABUSE).
- Everyone has a responsibility to make a report when abuse, neglect or exploitation is suspected.

What is Abuse?

“Abuse” means any willful act or threatened act by a relative, caregiver or household member which causes or is likely to cause significant impairment to a vulnerable adult’s physical, mental, or emotional health. Abuse includes acts and omissions.

*Per 415.102(1), Florida Statutes

What Is Neglect?

- Neglect means the failure or omission on the part of the caregiver or vulnerable adult to provide the care, supervision, and services necessary to maintain the physical and mental health of a vulnerable adult.
- Neglect also means the failure of a caregiver or vulnerable adult to make a reasonable effort to protect a vulnerable adult from abuse, neglect or exploitation by others.
- Neglect is repeated conduct or a single incident of carelessness which produces or could reasonably be expected to result in serious physical or psychological injury, or a substantial risk of death.

* Per 415.102(16), Florida Statutes

Vulnerable Adult in Need of Services (Self-Neglect)

“Vulnerable adult in need of services” means a vulnerable adult who has been determined by a protective investigator to be suffering from the ill effects of neglect not caused by a second party perpetrator and is in need of protective services or other services to prevent further harm.

*Per 415.102(29), Florida Statutes

What Is Exploitation?

Exploitation means knowingly, by deception or intimidation, obtaining or using, or attempting to obtain or use the adult's funds, assets, or property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the funds, assets, or property for the benefit of someone other than the vulnerable adult.

* Per 415.102(1), Florida Statutes

A Person Who Exploits is...

- A person who stands in a position of trust and confidence with a vulnerable adult.
- A person who knows or who should know that the vulnerable adult lacks the capacity to consent.
- Not always known by the victim.

8. Any other information available to the reporting person which may establish the cause of abuse, neglect, or exploitation that occurred or is occurring.

Reporting

- Barriers to reporting
 - Victims often find it difficult to file a report for themselves due to guilt, pride, shame, fear.
 - Recognizing the signs and symptoms of abuse, neglect and exploitation is sometimes not easy.
 - Lack of knowledge of mandatory reporting requirements inhibits reporting.

How Can You Help?

- Learn effective interviewing techniques.
- If the victim is in danger of immediate harm, call 911 or local law enforcement.
- Learn about local support groups, counseling or other available services in your area to which the victim can be referred.
- When in doubt about a situation, make the call and let the Hotline experts decide if investigation is needed.

Assisting Adult Protective Investigations

How can you help?

- Provide specific information- It is essential to provide accurate demographics and the locations of the subjects of a report.
- Provide collateral sources and contact information – Who can support or provide essential information regarding the allegations? How can the investigator contact them?

Assisting Adult Protective Investigations (continued)

- Provide accurate contact information – It is essential that the adult protective investigator contact you to ensure accuracy of the report as well as any additional details.
- Provide as much details as possible – Think the 5 “W”s -
Who? What? Where? When? Why?

If you disagree ...

with the counselors decision not to accept a report ...

- Ask to speak to a supervisor or manager.
